

CIVIC MORNING MUSICALS

Established 1890

The Wednesday Recital Series

Wednesdays at 12:30PM, Hosmer Auditorium, Everson Museum

This coming Wednesday, March 17, 2010, CMM is proud to present Dolce Flutes, the quartet of flute virtuosos consisting of Dana DiGennaro, Kelly Covert, Martha Grener, and Jeannie Pizzuto-Sauve. Their program consists of works by composers McMichael, Caliendo, Bozza, Sutton, and an arrangement of Danny Boy. Come to the Everson to hear this wonderful free program and take in Tim Scott: The Sixties - When Colour was Sculpture and Jen Pepper, a feature of the New York State Artist Series. CMM has many fine and varied concerts coming up this season, including a piano quartet, some fine vocal recitals, and a novel piano recital presented by the Pikarsky brothers in their first-ever combined program.

You may visit CMM on the web at www.civictimorningmusicals.org CMM expresses its thanks to the many musicians who give of their time, imagination, and love to make these events the wonderful things they are. Also, stay tuned to, and support WCNY-FM, where you will hear the best in classical music, and news of CMM's coming events.

John Spradling,
President, CMM